The S.T. Lee Endowed Lecture Series

Dr. Seng Tee Lee | Donor

North Korea after Kim Jong-il

Professor HAN Sung-Joo
Korea University | Seoul

Friday | February 17, 2012 | 4:30pm
John E. Simon Hall | May Auditorium
SPONSOR

The S.T. Lee Endowed Lecture

Created in 2009, The S.T. Lee Endowed Lecture series offers unique opportunities for students at Washington University to learn about issues of global leadership. The series has been made possible by a generous gift from Dr. Seng Tee Lee, through his establishment of The S.T. Lee Endowed Lecture Fund to the McDonnell International Scholars Academy, and it hosts distinguished guest speakers in business, academia, government, and the nonprofit sector from around the world.

PROGRAM

4:30pm  INTRODUCTION
        Chancellor Mark S. Wrighton

4:45pm  LECTURE
        Professor Han Sung-Joo
        “North Korea after Kim Jong-il”
        Simon Hall - May Auditorium

5:30pm  RECEPTION
        Simon Hall - Upper Level
Professor Han Sung-Joo is Professor Emeritus at Korea University. Professor Han previously served as the Minister of Foreign Affairs (1993-94), UN Secretary-General’s Special Representative for Cyprus (1996-97), a member of the UN Inquiry Commission on the 1994 Rwandan Genocide (1999), Chairman of the East Asia Vision Group (2000-01), Ambassador of the Republic of Korea to the United States (2003-05), and Acting President of Korea University (2002, 2006-07).

Professor Han is a graduate of Seoul National University (1962) and received a PhD in Political Science from the University of California, Berkeley (1970). Previously, he taught at City University of New York (1970-78) and was a Visiting Professor at Columbia University (1986-87) and Stanford University (1992, 1995). He was also a Distinguished Fellow at the Rockefeller Brothers Fund (1986-87).

The McDonnell International Scholars Academy Thanks You for Your Attendance